Dating Old Welsh Houses: North West Wales Dendrochronology Project*

A cruck framed hall-house, originally half-timbered but the walls later encased in stone. The crucks are windbraced and very heavily smoke blackened. The spacing of the bays does not conform to the common house bay patterns, as far as can be discovered. In the 16th-17th century a fireplace was inserted into the hall blocking what must have been the passage creating a lobby entry, the passage being at the uphill end of a sloping site. Against this fireplace a later fireplace was added backing onto it. Over the first fireplace is a characteristic tall square Denbighshire-style chimney. No upper floor was ever added, but the 'hall' was ceiled. The exceptionally heavy smoke blackening over the outer room suggests some sort of industrial use, such as ?a blacksmith's shop. (Royal Commission Report, ref. SJ 15 NW, ?1979).

Dendrochronology results: Oxford Dendrochronology Report, Miles and Bridge. Three purlins and four crucks were sampled (all oak). Two of the purlins were considered to have come from the same parent tree. Clustering of dates obtained suggests that Tŷ Cerrig was most likely constructed during 1501 (Oxford Dendrochronology Laboratory Report 2011/01).

CHRONOLOGICAL HISTORY

Date	Summary of Information (reference in brackets)
1501	Construction date for the primary house, consisting of a timber-framed cottage farmhouse of four bays defined by full crucks. Details of the crucks indicate a primary 'peasant-hall' plan of outer room, passage, single bay hall and inner room (Architectural Record prepared by Ric Tyler, Ludlow, April 2011, p.1). (Oxford Dendrochronology Laboratory Report 2011/01)
c.1600	(estimated date) Tall square chimney added. (Letter from Peter Smith to Tony Lyne 02.05.1995)

- undated Stone-built stack with characteristic Denbighshire stack was inserted in two phases creating a classic 'lobby-entry' plan. At the same time timber-framed walls of the primary house were underbuilt in stone rubble (Architectural Record prepared by Ric Tyler, Ludlow, April 2011, p.1).
- undated The house was divided into a series of discrete units (Architectural Record prepared by Ric Tyler, Ludlow, April 2011, section 6.2.2)
- undated Hall was ceiled at some point, but no upper floor was added. (Royal Commission Report, ref. SJ 15 NW, ? 1979).
- undated Extensions built to north and south (Architectural Record prepared by Ric Tyler, Ludlow, April 2011, section 6.2.1).
- 1632 The heir to the Welsh estates of Sir Thomas Myddelton (1550-1631) was his oldest surviving son, Thomas Myddelton (1586-1666) (owner?), and he purchased Ruthin Castle in 1632 (National Library of Wales Chirk Castle estate, records Reference code(s): GB 0210 CHIRK). NB. We assume the Ruthin Castle estate is likely to have included Tŷ Cerrig. We have been unable to confirm that Thomas Myddelton took over ownership of Ruthin Castle estate at this point since there is evidence that in 1634 it was in the hands of the Crown - see reference below).
- 1634 Charles 1 (owner) sold Ruthin Castle and Lordship to Sir Francis Crane (owner) (The National Archives online Catalogue: Lordship of Ruthin (Denbighshire): Court and Constables' Records, Series reference WALE 15).
- 1635 Thomas Myddelton (owner?) acquired the stewardship and lordship of Ruthin (National Library of Wales Chirk Castle estate, records reference code: GB 0210 CHIRK).
- 1699 27th July: burial of Robertus Moris de Tŷ Cerrig (Llanfwrog Parish Records of Burials, PD/59/1/1-8)
- 1707 Reference to 'For repairing ye thatch 2s 0d' (Llanfwrog Churchwarden's Accounts, 1703-54: PD/59/1/35/36) (unclear whether this applies to Tŷ Cerrig).
- 1718 Sir William Myddelton (owner) 4th baronet, died unmarried, the baronetcy became extinct, and the Chirk Castle estate, with the lordships of Chirk, Chirklands and Ruthin passed to Robert Myddelton (owner), younger son of the 1st baronet (National Library of Wales Chirk Castle estate, records reference code: GB 0210 CHIRK).
- 1720 On 14th December H Jones (from Tŷ Cerrig) applied for a faculty to construct a pew in Llanfwrog church. (Document in Ruthin Castle Estate Deeds - based on information from Kevin Matthias, archivist working for Denbighshire County Council. NB. Ruthin Castle documents are in the process of being catalogued by Denbighshire Record Office and we are therefore currently unable to give a reference number for any Ruthin Castle material).

- 1723 Reference to 'Simon Hughes Tŷ Cerrig being sick 8 weeks 4s 4d' (Llanfwrog Churchwarden's Accounts, 1703-54: PD/59/1/35/36)
- 1726 29th January: Baptism of Johannes fil Johannes Jones et Maria uxor (wife) de Ty Cerrig (Llanfwrog Parish Records of Baptisms, Burials and Marriages, PD/59/1/1 microfilm 516)
- 1728 3rd August: burial of Jana, uxor (wife) de Simonis Hughes de Tŷ Cerrig (Llanfwrog Parish Records of Burials, PD/59/1/1-8)
- 1729 27th February: burial of David Roberts de Tŷ Cerrig, cobbler (sic) (Llanfwrog Parish Records of Burials, PD/59/1/1-8)
- 1730 25th October: Baptism of Jana child (daughter) of Simonus Hughes et Susanna uxoris (wife) de Tŷ Cerrig (Llanfwrog Parish Records of Baptisms, Burials and Marriages, PD/59/1/1 microfilm 516)
- 1731 7th December: burial of Jana, fil Simonis Hughs (sic) (Llanfwrog Parish Records of Burials, PD/59/1/1-8)

- 1734 29th March: burial of Helena, fil Simonis Hughs (sic) (Llanfwrog Parish Records of Burials, PD/59/1/1-8)
- 1737 Humphrey Jones of Tu Cerrigg (sic) is mentioned in a document regarding a 'legal fiction' otherwise known as a fine, which includes mention of one barn and a parcel of land. (Document in Ruthin Castle Estate Deeds - based on information from Kevin Matthias, archivist working for Denbighshire County Council. NB. Ruthin Castle documents are in the process of being catalogued by Denbighshire Record Office and we are therefore currently unable to give a reference number for any Ruthin Castle material. However, the document also mentions that there are two Tu Cerriggs (one being below the church - see comment below).
- 1737 29th August- Declaration to Levy the Uses of a Fine (see above). Within the legal document the following is of interest with regard to Tŷ Cerrig:
- "... all those two severall messuages houses or Burgages in the Parish of Llanfwrog (Ruthin) the one called Tŷ Cerrigg above the church of Llanfwrog and the other below the church on the south side of the road leading to Ruthin now in the tenure or occupation of Humphrey Jones his undertenants or assignes...". (NB. We assume that our Tŷ Cerrig is the one situated 'above the church' because it is not below the church on the south side of the road leading to Ruthin. Therefore, Humphrey Jones would appear not to be resident in our Tŷ Cerrig). NB. Ruthin Castle documents are in the process of being catalogued by Denbighshire Record Office and we are therefore currently unable to give a reference number for any Ruthin Castle material.

- 1737 18th December: burial of John, an infant son of Simon Hughes of Tŷ Cerrig (unattributed reference by Dr Lyne but appears to be Llanfwrog Parish Records of burials)
- 1738 6th January: burial of Margt, daughter of John Lloyd of Tŷ Cerrig (Llanfwrog Parish Records of Burials, PD/59/1/1-8)
- 1738 Reference to 'Paid to John Jones of Tŷ Cerrig 2s 0d' (Llanfwrog Churchwarden's Accounts, 1703-54: PD/59/1/35/36)
- 1739 9th May: burial of Dorothy, daughter of Simon Hughes and Susan h.w. of Tŷ Cerrig. (Llanfwrog Parish Records of Burials, PD/59/1/1-8)
- 1741 John Roberts was resident in Tu Cerrig (sic) according to the passage below:

" Notes of the fines and ameracements in the courts leet and courts baron of the lordship of Ruthin ,1736 - 1741, upon ... John Roberts of Tu Cerrig ... defendant in an Exchequer suit brought by John Myddleton, esq. for not attending on grand jury quarter session. Fined at Leet; fined at Baron Court. (From Dr Lyne's notes from National Library of Wales - Schedule of Ruthin Lordship records p.541 item 2079 - our no.17) (NB. We assume John Myddelton, who had owned the Ruthin Castle estate since 1733, was still the owner of the estate, including Tŷ Cerrig, in this year)
- 1741 1st November: burial of John Jones of Tŷ Cerrig, pauper (Llanfwrog Parish Records of Burials, PD/59/1/1-8)
- 1745 Reference to 'Pd Simon Hughes for keep. Will Lloyd 12s 0d' (Llanfwrog Churchwarden's Accounts, 1703-54: PD/59/1/35/36) (We assume this is the same Simon Hughes of Tŷ Cerrig who is referred to in the note relating to 1739)
- 1746 Reference to Tŷ Cerrig 'above the church' (Dr Lyne's notes from Ruthin Castle MSS Deeds. NB. Ruthin Castle documents are in the process of being catalogued by Denbighshire Record Office and we are therefore currently unable to give a reference number for any Ruthin Castle material).

- 1782 5th May: Baptism of Catherine daughter of Thomas Roberts and Jane his wife. (Llanfwrog Parish Records of Baptisms, PD/59/1/1-8) NB. The records do not specifically state that the family were still living in Tŷ Cerrig at this time, but this seems to be a fair assumption since they were there in 1780 and still there in 1783.
